Sudanska misija 1848 – 1858 Ignacij Knoblehar - misijonar, raziskovalec Belega Nila in zbiralec afriških predmetov

Predmeti z razstave sodijo med najstarejše afriške zbirke predmetov nilotskih ljudstev v Evropi. Zbral jih je slovenski misijonar Ignacij Knoblehar in jih leta 1850 pripeljal v Ljubljano. Njegova zbirka odseva materialno in duhovno kulturo različnih ljudstev, ki so sredi 19. stoletja živela ob Belem Nilu na jugu današnjega Sudana.

Ignacij Knoblehar - missionary, explorer of the White Nile and collector of African objects

The exhibited objects are among the oldest African collections of objects from the Nilotic people in Europe. They were collected by the Slovene missionary Ignacij Knoblehar and brought to Ljubljana in 1850. Knoblehar's collection reflects the material and spiritual culture of various tribes that in the mid-19th lived century along the White Nile in the Southern part of the present day Sudan.
